

...She will probably buy some milk to go with it.

While she's at the store, she might as well buy something for herself, because she deserves it after such a busy, fun year.

Thank you, _____, for putting your heart and soul into this school year and for loving your students so much. We could not ask for anything more and feel so blessed we got to have you as a teacher. You will be greatly missed next year.

Love,

If you give your teacher
a cookie...
